Dear Sirs:-

In response to your letter of July 22nd I beg to enclose a folder describing our Peace Medal - bronze copies of which are to be had for five ($5) dollars each.

We have made a proposition to a number of Jewelers throughout the country offering to place these medals with them on consignment, allowing for commission 25% on sales. These sales are to be reported at the end of six weeks giving the name and address of purchasers.

For your information I would state however, that the sales in this way have been very slight indeed. The interest of the public in the medal seems to have been dispated by the long delay in its appearance. If you care to consider the proposition above I should be very glad to have word from you to that effect.

Very respectfully yours,

(Enclosure.)

Secretary.

Dear Sirs:-

I have your letter of August 1st, and are sending you today one bronze copy of our Peace Medal. If this is sold, you understand that the price is to be made $5.00. The discount which we allow firms who are handling the medal for us is 25% - your cheque was for four dollars. There is therefore due you, 25¢, and I am enclosing that amount in specie.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
